

The Gazebo

at Sunset Ridge Buffalo Farm

casually elegant, a location as unique as you are

*Outside of the traditional event space
The Gazebo
at Sunset Ridge Buffalo Farm offers many opportunities for your guests to mix, meet and mingle.*

The Gazebo at Sunset Ridge Buffalo Farm is ten sided with a 33 ft. diameter (over 900 sq.ft.) and can be configured to seat up to 110 for weddings, or up to 45 at tables for dining. Additional tented or open seating can be arranged. The Gazebo Island also has electrical outlets available for client provided PA systems, musical systems, or special lighting.

The staff wishes to assist in making any social function at The Gazebo at Sunset Ridge Buffalo Farm an enjoyable event, and will work closely with event planners, caterers, and vendors. Although Sunset Ridge does not cater, we do have a preferred vendor list that will help you create a memorable meal for your event.

Since The Gazebo at Sunset Ridge Buffalo Farm is located on a buffalo farm, we encourage you to use our nutritious bison meat in your menu. We have many delicious recipes for you to try and our vendors know how to prepare bison to perfection.

Some groups combine a tour of the buffalo farm with a picnic or catered event.

Our 'covered wagon' will take your guests for a tour and circle the venue dropping them off right at the entrance of the Gazebo.

Dream of an outdoor field wedding? You are not limited to the Gazebo for events, we have ample space for a wedding under the blue skies or tented space for your reception.

The outdoor kitchen features two gas grills; one 36" and one 30", plus one gas side burner. In addition, there is a refrigerator, 30 lb. icemaker, double sink with hot water, filtered dispenser for drinking water, plus 50 sq. ft. of granite countertop for food preparation and serving on the island. The outdoor kitchen can be shaded for extreme heat or rain, or may be left open at the discretion of the client.
